

Start preparing now for the AP Spanish exam by becoming familiar with the different parts of the exam. You can find information about the exam at the AP central student website.

<https://apstudent.collegeboard.org/apcourse/ap-spanish-language/about-the-exam>

Summer Reading Assignment:

The 2017 Summer Reading Assignment for AP Spanish is Paula by Isabel Allende. This book is an autobiography written by Allende to her daughter, Paula, who was in a coma because of complications associated with porphyria. Allende never knew if her daughter would come out of the coma. She wrote about her life, both past and present, just in case Paula needed to know about herself after waking from the coma.

If you are having trouble understanding the book, you should read the book in both English and Spanish.

You are required to write a 1,000-word summary of the book in Spanish due at the beginning of the school year.

Suggested Study:

Watch the news in Spanish frequently.

Listen to Spanish music.

Review Spanish grammar online (duolingo, studyspanish.com)

Make a list of new vocabulary and add to it daily.

Practice speaking the language as much as possible.